

A modern living room with a warm, orange-toned sofa and armchair. The room features large windows on the left, offering a view of a coastal landscape with a beach and buildings. Decorative hanging lights with gold and black accents and crystal strands are suspended from the ceiling. A white shag rug covers the floor, and a small round coffee table with a white top and gold base holds a small potted plant. A side table with a black and gold base is also visible. The text "SUMMER ODYSSEY" is overlaid in a large, white, serif font, and "with Tuscania" is written below it in a smaller, gold, cursive font.
